

White Cakes from the Maltês bakery, the centre for white cakes in Santo Amaro

The ingredients for the best white cakes in the world are a secret. But Silreira knows it. How is it that this woman from Bahia, Brazil, has acquired the secret of the white cakes of Santo Amaro? Her hands are sunburned. Hands that feed the world. Dark hands that knead white dough. She came from Bahia at no risk, not under duress or under fire.
